INVITE YOU TO A SPECIAL EVENT

TO PRESENT THE NEW WEBSITE

BRITISH SCHOOL AT ROME LIBRARY AND ARCHIVE DIGITAL COLLECTIONS

The screenshot shows the website's header with the logo of the British School at Rome and the text "The British School at Rome Library and Archive Digital Collections". The date and time are "05 January 2010 14:32". A navigation menu includes "About", "Collections", "Projects", "URBS", "Rights & Restrictions", "Reproductions", and "Acknowledgements". Below the menu is a search bar with "Limit by category" and "Limit by collection" dropdowns, a "SEARCH" button, and a link to "Advanced search / Browse". The main content area is a grid of eight categories, each with a representative image and a brief description:

- PHOTOGRAPHS: Photographic prints and negatives from unique historic collections, including calotypes, glass and film negatives, slides and lantern slides.
- MAPS: Historic and modern maps of Rome and Italy, printed or engraved.
- PRINTS: Loose and bound miscellaneous prints of varying techniques including engraving, etching, lithograph and woodcut.
- DOCUMENTS: Correspondence, reports and documents relating to the history and activities of the British School at Rome.
- MANUSCRIPTS: Hand-written documents including travel notebooks and archaeological notes taken in the field, often illustrated, essays and other texts.
- PAINTINGS: Miscellaneous watercolours and works of art on paper.
- DRAWINGS: Bound sketch books and miscellaneous loose pencil drawings.
- POSTCARDS: Historic collections of miscellaneous commercial postcards.
